Dear Mr. Johnson,

I just finished reading the Ventura County Star story about your coming to the aid of Maryann Pouget of Moorpark and her unique predicament.

You and your company are to be commended for your willingness to help someone in a difficult situation without expecting financial gain and, I'm certain, notoriety! What a noble way to make someone else's life easier.

In this day and age where, I think, many of us are sick and tired of reading about all the bad things that happen in our society and nation, it is so refreshing and heartwarming to learn that folks out there still exist who are kind, caring and willing to help one another such as yourself.

Overall, society has become selfish and hurtful by losing touch with the basic elements of what it means to be genuinely good, ethical and moral individuals. However, there are gems among us and ones who serve as role models – such as yourself and the folks from Classic Roofing – who remind us that being the best that you can be whenever possible is the best way to go.

I just want to commend and congratulate you for stepping forward with this particular situation. Reading the story put a smile on my face and, I'm certain, on many other readers faces today. I hope that much success and happiness comes your way in return for your thoughtful gesture. Afterall, what comes around, goes around.

Cheers to you, Mr. Johnson, Walker Construction, and Classic Roofing!
